A BULLETIN OF IDEAS AND INFORMATION FOR BUYERS OF PRINTING
ISSUED MONTHLY BY THE MURRAY PRINTING COMPANY

JULY · 1946

CARELESS WORK

THE other morning we laid aside three envelopes from our morning mail that irritated us. We are looking at them now, as we make a friendly comment, or criticism if you want to make it stronger, on the slipshod, careless appearance that some firms permit in their correspondence. We presume we are easily ruffled by this sort of thing, because in our printing, accuracy is a prime requisite, and correct appearance is in the same category.

One envelope was addressed in this fashion:

```
Murry Print
18 Ames Street
Cambridge Mass.
```

We do a bit of business with this concern, but we are beginning to get sore about their careless treatment of our firm name. An address so recklessly mangled gives us the impression that anything goes in that office, and that is a poor impression to create in any business office.

The second envelope transgresses postal regulations in regard to properly addressing mail matter. Here again our firm name is incorrect, and the street address is entirely missing.

```
Murray Print
Cambridge   Mass.
```

Any typist responsible for that kind of work needs waking up. Presumably the office is too small for any supervision of the correspondence, but such continued display of the thoughtlessness, carelessness, laziness, or call it what you will, brings no credit to the firm paying that particular lady's wages.

The third example is somewhat different:

```
Murray Printing Co.
Wadsworth Street
E. Cambridge
```

Well, we left Wadsworth Street in March, 1941, and never were located in East Cambridge. We know that in our office the staff is very keen on checking changes of addresses, and takes pride in keeping the mailing list correct, but it is safe to assume that here is a concern that never checks its mailing list from one century to another.

We have given only three examples of carelessness in addressing mail. In every mail the same indifference is in evidence. Many printers in their advertising have emphasized the slogan that a firm is known by the quality of its printing, but we are going a bit farther and claim that whether their stationery is good or bad, their typists can make it a great deal worse. Now why not speak to those young ladies and ask them to be as careful and correct in addressing your mail as they are with their own make-up and hair-do?

Write your views to them on all important local, national, and international legislation that comes up for vote before them. Express yourself frankly and with force. They need your letters. They are away from home and many times under wrong influence. Do not hesitate to write them many times a year strengthening their hand and giving them the advantage of your good judgement and common sense. Guide them with good old fashioned home-town logic and help save America from pitfalls which daily threaten our constitutional rights.

Cambridge Numerical Street Directory

1946

Copyright 1946, by H. A. Manning Co.

Containing a full list of streets and roads with the dwellings and stores located thereon. Residences and places of business are designated by their street numbers, numerically arranged. Where the houses are not numbered the householders are arranged in the order that they come on the street. Figures in parentheses, following names, indicate number of room in building.

The 🔔 preceding any number indicates a telephone at that number.

Bill of Rights

(In force December 15, 1791)

ARTICLE I.

(RELIGIOUS ESTABLISHMENT PROHIBITED, FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OF THE PRESS AND RIGHT TO PETITION)

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

(RIGHT TO KEEP AND BEAR ARMS)

A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III.

(NO SOLDIER TO BE QUARTERED IN ANY HOUSE, UNLESS, ETC.)

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

(RIGHT OF SEARCH AND SEIZURE REGULATED)

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

(PROVISIONS CONCERNING PROSECUTION, TRIAL AND PUNISHMENT—PRIVATE PROPERTY NOT TO BE TAKEN FOR PUBLIC USE WITHOUT COMPENSATION)

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or other infamous crime unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

(RIGHT TO SPEEDY TRIAL, WITNESSES, ETC.)

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which districts shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

ARTICLE VII.

(RIGHT OF TRIAL BY JURY)

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII.

(EXCESSIVE BAIL OR FINES AND CRUEL PUNISHMENT PROHIBITED)

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

(RULE OF CONSTRUCTION OF CONSTITUTION)

The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X.

(RIGHTS OF STATES UNDER CONSTITUTION)

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.
